John Smith is the first person ever sent downstairs due to a mix-up in the paperwork. While this is sorted out, he is assigned to work at Hades local television station, where he must deal with strange characters and stranger programming. All the more bizarre, he arrived just in time for Founder s Day. You ll be recommending this book to your friends before you are even halfway through it. A+ all the way - highly recommend -- top 500 reviewer Dark satire novella adapted from the screenplay KHDZ, written by D.R.Beshears Industry feedback re: the screenplay: The concept is brilliant and eye-catching. The situation is entertaining, the shows are fun, and life at the station with all its quirky characters is easy to become invested in. a fun script and a very talented writer. The author has come up with a very inventive concept and gives us a very sympathetic protagonist. Not only that, the author understands how to balance the wit of the set-up with the real emotional issues faced by the characters.
