Not illustrated. 1912 Excerpt: .think that in this community that work should be vigorously fostered. Night school was held three nights a week for twelve weeks. The total enrollment was 34. Of this number, 26 attended the entire twelve weeks. We made the mistake of not opening the evening school until December. I am convinced that by opening in October or early in November next year we will have a very large attendance. The subjects taught in the night school were Shorthand, Typewriting, Commercial Correspondence, Penmanship, Arithmetic, Reading. The class. in Reading was composed of foreigners, some of whom could not speak a word of English at the beginning. Splendid progress was made by these people. An effort will be made next year to extend night school work to Domestic Science and possibly to Manual Training. Our new schools have been strongly supported by all classes of citizens. Since the movement is so new in this state and experience lacking, the work has been strenuous but we are growing with the movement now and believe it will prove a successful part of our educational system. A still more generous support through legislation is all that is necessary now to further our success. EAU CLAIRE. By Supt. W. H. Schultz. The matter of establishing Continuation and Industrial Schools in the city of Eau Claire was discussed at several meetings of the Board of Education. Since there are a large number of manufacturing establishments in our city, but very few of them...
