Ko Thah-byu s successful labors.--Style of preaching.-- Scene of his successes.--Shades in his character.-- Ignorance.--Love of knowledge.--Passion.--Habits of prayer. From the time that Mr. Boardman became unable to labor, to more than a year after the writer of this memoir joined the mission, with the very important exception of Mrs. Boardman s invaluable and indefatigable labors with the people when they visited town, the whole watch care of the church, and the instruction of the inquirers, devolved on Ko Thahbyu; and the numbers that were baptized within this period afford the best comment on his labors. During the rains of 1831, he taught a school, as he had done the previous year, near Tshiekku, where the principal part of the Christians resided; and his diligence in this department of labor was as conspicuous, as in every other in which he engaged.
